

ShopSphere Order Cancellation Policy

Effective Date: January 1, 2026

Last Updated: January 1, 2026

1. Purpose

This Order Cancellation Policy explains when and how customers may cancel orders placed through ShopSphere and the circumstances under which ShopSphere may cancel an order. It should be read together with the Shipping Policy, Refund Policy, Return Policy, and Terms and Conditions.

2. Customer-Initiated Cancellations

Customers may cancel eligible orders before they are dispatched from the fulfillment center. Cancellation requests can be submitted through the My Orders section of the ShopSphere website or mobile application. Once approved, customers will receive a confirmation notification by email or SMS.

3. Orders That Cannot Be Cancelled

Orders that have already been dispatched, products that are customized or made to order, digital goods that have been delivered, and certain promotional or limited-availability products may not be eligible for cancellation. Product pages may specify additional cancellation restrictions where applicable.

4. Seller or ShopSphere Cancellations

ShopSphere or the seller may cancel an order because of inventory shortages, pricing errors, suspected fraudulent activity, payment verification failures, legal or regulatory requirements, or operational issues that prevent fulfillment. Customers will be notified promptly if such a cancellation occurs.

5. Refunds Following Cancellation

For prepaid orders cancelled before dispatch, refunds are generally initiated to the original payment method. Refund processing timelines vary depending on the payment provider and are governed by the ShopSphere Refund Policy. Cash on Delivery orders do not require refund processing unless an advance payment has been collected.

6. Partial Cancellations

Where technically feasible, customers may cancel individual items from a multi-item order before dispatch. If one or more items have already entered the shipping process, only the remaining eligible items may be cancelled. Shipping charges and promotional discounts may be recalculated following a partial cancellation.

7. Customer Responsibilities

Customers are responsible for reviewing order details before confirming a purchase. Accurate delivery information and valid payment details help prevent processing delays that could affect cancellation eligibility.

8. Abuse Prevention

ShopSphere reserves the right to limit cancellation privileges for accounts that demonstrate repeated abuse of the cancellation process, fraudulent behavior, or violations of platform policies. Such actions may include temporary account restrictions or additional verification requirements.

9. Policy Updates and Contact

ShopSphere may revise this Order Cancellation Policy periodically to reflect operational or legal changes. The latest version will always be available on the official ShopSphere platform. Customers requiring assistance may contact ShopSphere Customer Support through the Help Center.
